Birds readily recognize pictures, and stories of their pecking at painted fruit may well be true, for they readily recognize the picture of another bird, and the little "love-bird" may be saved from matrimony when alone by placing the picture of a companion in the cage.

One of the articles of food most prized by the Chinese on the Pacific coast is dried duck. An American in Contra Costa county, California, has started a duck-drying business and has a monopoly of the Chinese trade. He buys hundreds of ducks from hunters. His men with him, and hang them in the sun for six weeks. They become as hard as sole leather or dried codfish, and will keep indefinitely. The Chinese used to import their dried duck from China, but now patronize the home industry almost exclusively.

BRUNER'S "BEAN" BAKE
The "Hobo" Owns Up That He Is a Perjurer.
WILL HE BE TRIED FOR THAT?

"Hobo" Frank Bruner, the ex-Maysville baseballist, acknowledges his true colors, according to the letter printed below.

It will be remembered that Bruner was a trifle too familiar with a young girl at Gallipolis.

The authorities got after him, and to clear his name he charged before the Grand Jury that Dr. Bruner had performed an operation on the girl.

Dr. Bruner's attorneys set about showing up the Hobo's character, taking several depositions in this city.

The trial of the case has just been concluded at Gallipolis, and this letter gives the result:

GALLIPOLIS, O., April 23d, 1896.
Judge A. A. Wadsworth, Maysville, Ky.—Dear Sir: Dr. Bruner was acquitted with a whirl. The Jury was out about five minutes. The man Bruner admitted that he had committed perjury before the Grand Jury, and that he had been in jail in nearly every state in the Union. Truly,

CHEAP EXCURSIONS.

Some Facts For Maysville Merchants.

WORTHY OF CAREFUL THOUGHT.

Instead of "protesting" against the cheap excursions that are being run by the C. and O. Railway, inducing people to go to Cincinnati by hundreds to spend their money for goods that should be bought in Maysville, would it not be a wise move upon the part of Maysville merchants to negotiate with the Railway Company for excursions to be run at intervals, say from Catlettsburg, stopping at Ashland, Russell, Greensburg, Quincy, Vanceburg, Concord and Manchester, with a view to bringing people from that section to this city to make their purchases?

Maysville is so much better market than any of the places named that it stands in about the same relation to them as Cincinnati does to Maysville.

The excursions that are now being run into Cincinnati, as a matter of fact, do not originate entirely with the Railway Company; but the Railway Company, like every other organization, is out for business.

It would be a very simple plan, and a very inexpensive one, if Maysville merchants would formulate themselves into an organization guaranteeing to the Railway Company so much money for running a train from Catlettsburg to Maysville and return; but no money would be required from the Maysville merchants unless the sale of tickets fell short of the amount guaranteed.

It has occurred to THE LEDGER more than once to offer such suggestion.

Human nature is pretty much the same the world over.

There are people who will not hesitate to spend $2.50 in good, hard cash, with the prospect of receiving a 50-cent dinner without paying for it.

Now, the prime object of these excursions is to attract people to the city, and if the Maysville merchants would only organize and club together, assuring the excursionists of a cheap rate on the railway and a free dinner at this end of the line, THE LEDGER is almost prepared to guarantee that several hundred people can be brought to this city at 9 o'clock in the morning and kept here until 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

THE LATE THOMAS J. ROGERS.

A Worthy Tribute To Him By His Home Paper.

Whitely Daily Eagle.

The death of Mr. T. J. Rogers occurred shortly before noon, and although confined to his house for three weeks with illness his death was not expected. The fact is his illness was never considered in the least serious. He was feeling very well yesterday morning and was thinking about going to his office in the afternoon when he again complained of feeling badly and died in a very short time.

When the death of Mr. Rogers became known it caused sorrow among all classes of people who knew him. He has lived in Wichita for nine years and no citizen was more popular. He was a perfect, genial, warm-hearted gentleman both in business and private life. He never offended any man and many are indebted to him for his kindness of heart. He would share his last dollar with a friend and many are they who have enjoyed his generosity during the past few years. He was engaged in the insurance business and was undoubtedly the most prosperous underwriter in the city.

Mr. Rogers was 37 or 38 years of age and was a native of Kentucky where he was born and reared. While a thorough Kansan he always loved to talk about the bluegrass fields, the eloquent men and the fair women of his home state. Three years ago he married Miss Sanders of Frankfort, but they have no children. Mrs. Rogers is prostrated with grief over the loss of her husband. Since coming to Wichita Mrs. Rogers has made hosts of friends among the best ladies of the citiz. all of whom are doing what they can to mitigate her grief and lighten the burden of her great sadness.

Mr. George Rogers, brother of the deceased, who lives at Maysville, Ky., was telegraphed for and no arrangements for the funeral will be made until he arrives. It is probable, however, that the remains will be taken to Kentucky for burial.

Mr. Rogers carried a good amount of insurance in the old line companies and it was only a few weeks before he took sick that County Clerk Denney prevailed on him to join the A. O. U. W. in which organization he carries an additional policy of $2,000.

All who knew the quiet, friendly, genial, warm-hearted Tom will shed a tear of sorrow over his death. There was nothing in his nature that was not grand and noble and generous. None of his virtues come to mind in legends

THE W. C. T. U.
A Local Branch Organized in This City Friday.

SOME OF THE LINES OF WORK.

Mrs. Ruth L. Rees of Augusta, one of the State Organizers for the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, came to this city on the 10th and met with the Woman's Prayer Service.

She is a lovely Christian woman who has consecrated her life to this work.

She spoke of the forty departments of work, any of which can be taken up by local unions, the most important of which are "Evangelistic," "Mother's Meeting," "Prison Work," "Kindergarten Parity," "Flower Mission," "The Relation of Capital and Labor" and "Scientific Temperance Instruction in our Public Schools."

After the reading of the pledge and constitution, a Local Union was organized with twelve members.

No other organization of women has accomplished so much for the "Sacred of Temperance" as the W. C. T. U.

The first meeting will be held this afternoon at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. J. M. Scott, to which all ladies are cordially invited.

POLL ON SILVER.

Figures Show That White Metal Will Control at Chicago.

New York Journal.

The Journal has received from the Democratic leaders of the Legislatures of nearly every state in the Union their opinions as to the probable strength of silver or gold in their delegations to the National Democratic Convention. Many of them also discuss the probability of the adoption of a unit by their delegations.

This canvass of the men who are close to the people of their own states seems to show that the West and South will be largely for silver, while the East and the Middle States will declare for gold, or at any rate against free silver.

That the results foreshadowed by this canvass are most important in politics cannot be gainsaid. These telegrams to The Journal, from their character, clearly indicate that a crisis in financial matters will be reached when the Democratic Convention assembles.

The deductions from all these reports can be seen by a glance at the following table:

BRADLEY'S CURRENCY PLATFORM.

"I am opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver, believing it would destroy the National prosperity. The gold dollar is the best dollar, and I am in favor of making every other dollar equivalent to it in value. I am the friend of silver, and it can be best protected by having its value in such bonds as will insure the parity with gold as a circulating medium."—W. O. BRADLEY.

The shortage in Uncle Sam's Treasury for the first twenty-one days of April was $6,335,753 33, for the fiscal year $25,596,453 33, and for the Cleveland Administration $13,194,059 30.

GOVERNOR BRADLEY has stated that the only condition on which he would call an extra session of the Legislature would be the giving of written pledges by all the Democratic Senators agreeing to enact the financial legislation considered necessary to lift the state out of the financial rut into which the Democrats have forced it.

FED BOTH ARMIES.

General Morgan, General Grant's Great Commissary General.

Washington Post.

Congressman Lacy of Iowa Monday re-told an interesting Army story which General Morgan, Commissary General of the United States Army, recently related to his former comrades in arms.

General Morgan was Grant's Commissary, and after the surrender at Appomattox successfully fed Lee's entire army of 25,000 men in addition to Grant's troops. During one of Grant's campaigns the Confederates by a flank movement rounded up 35,000 steers belonging to his Commissary Department, and as soon as the damage became known in Washington a dispatch arrived in Grant's headquarters from Secretary Stanton, demanding to know in categorical language who was responsible for the loss.

"I am," promptly telegraphed Grant in reply, and there the matter ended. But General Morgan states that while Grant stood stoic between him and the irate Secretary of War, he had a peculiar way of showing his resentment to him. On several occasions when there were visitors in camp, Grant would exclaim:

"I have the greatest Commissary General in the world—not only of modern times, but ancient times as well—Colonel Morgan here," and he would point him out with an appearance of honest pride.

"How is that, General?" the visitor would ask.

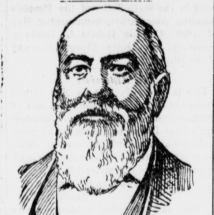

"How is that?" Grant would say, "why, he feeds our Army and the enemy's too."

There was no opposition. The second-morning men controlled the committee by seven to four, but the time and place accepted by the free-silver men was also presented. It is the desire of both sides for harmony, and neither cares to force the financial issue, realizing that it cost the loss of the state last year.

FOR PEACE.

International Arbitration Congress Opens in Washington.

Ex-Senator Edmunds, of Vermont, Chosen Permanent Chairman.

Object of the Convention to Promote the Principles of Arbitration Between Nations in International Disputes—Letters From Fuller and Carnegie.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The international arbitration congress which began a two days' session in Metzer hall at the city Wednesday was a distinguished gathering of prominent men from all parts of the country. Mr. Gardner G. Hubbard called the convention to order and introduced Hon. John W. Foster, ex-secretary of state, as temporary chairman.

Ex-Senator Edmunds, of Vermont, was chosen permanent presiding officer. He made a brief speech in which he said that the United States had the least reason of any great nation, in a mere selfish sense, to wish for arbitration. It was strong enough in any but the most absurd case to defend itself, promote its policies and to carry on war, but its very strength impels it to be backward.

The convention had met to aid and promote the interests of the government to practice the principle of arbitration and finally all other nations might follow their example.

A letter from Chief Justice Fuller, who was unable to attend, was read. He expressed his sympathy with the object of the meeting.

A letter was also read from Andrew Carnegie, of Pittsburgh, stating that he was unable to attend, but adding to have his name associated with those who favored arbitration and enclosing a check for $500 to be used for any purpose the convention saw fit.

On motion of Mr. Dodge, of New York, a committee of 15 was appointed on resolutions and a committee of five on the order of business.
